IGS is committed to a high standard of ethical behaviour in the conduct of our business.

At IGS we have a high reputation with clients, their clients and the community as a whole. This is partly attributable to our Code of Conduct.

We expect all members of our team to behave at all times in a manner that is consistent with that reputation and makes it grow.

We expect our clients to support and respect that position.

In regard to our employees:

- The company will strive to maintain a healthy, safe and enjoyable workplace, and to encourage a satisfactory work-life balance for all.
- The company expects and requires employees to maintain a healthy personal lifestyle and to always turn up to work "fit to work".
- The company will strive to train and equip employees to excel at their work and to develop a high professional standard and image.
- The company expects employees to respect, protect and nurture our assets, both physical and intellectual.
- The company is an equal opportunity employer in regard to race, culture, marital status, education, background, gender, sexual orientation, religion, etc. A zero tolerance policy exists towards employees who discriminate against others or who bully or harass overtly or covertly.
- We expect our employees to adhere to established policies, written or inferred, and to comply with this Code of Conduct.

In regard to our clients:

- The company will only undertake work that it is competent to undertake, in regards to technical/physical capability and resources.
- The company will endeavour to avoid conflict of interest, and will immediately advise a client of any known conflict if it should arise.
- The company and its employees will respect and maintain client confidentiality.

In regard to society and the environment:

- The company will endeavour to always act in accordance with applicable laws.
- The company and its employees will endeavour to avoid causing environmental harm from our work and will strive towards the principles of sustainability in our operations.
